Article I: Name

The name of this assembly shall be Emmanuel Community Church of the City of Elmira, State of New York.

Article II: Prerogatives

Section 1 This church shall have the right to govern itself according to the standard of the New Testament Scriptures, “endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ” (Eph. 4:3, 13).

Section 2 In connection therewith, or incidental thereto, it shall have the right to purchase or acquire by gift, bequest or otherwise, either directly or as trustee, and to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of any real estate of chattels as may be necessary for the furtherance of its purposes; all in accordance with its Constitution and By-Laws.

Article III: Statement of Faith

Section 1 1. The Scriptures

We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are verbally inspired by God and accept them as the written Word of God, the revelation of absolute Truth. They are inerrant and infallible in the original writings, totally sufficient, and the authoritative and normative rule and guide of all Christian life, practice, and doctrine (Ps. 19:7-11, 119; John 17:17; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Tim. 3:14-17; Heb. 4:12; 2 Pet. 1:19-21).

2. The Triune God

We believe in the one, true, and living God. He is eternal, self-sufficient, omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent; perfect in holiness, truth, and love; having all life, goodness, and blessedness in and of Himself. In the unity of the Godhead there are three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They are the same in substance and nature, equal in power and glory—each having the whole divine essence without this essence being divided—yet distinct in ministry. This is the very foundation of our faith, life, and fellowship with God (Exo. 34:5-7; Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; Luke 3:22; John 5:26; 14:16-17; 2 Cor. 13:14; Eph. 4:4-6).

3. Creation and Providence

We believe that the triune God is the Creator and Sustainer of everyone and everything. He upholds, directs, and governs all things, according to His holy will, to the end for which they were created—namely, the praise of His glory. The sovereignty of God extends over all things such that there is no aspect of reality outside of His ultimate control. God is sovereign in such a way that He is not the author of, nor guilty of committing, sin, but that His just and eternal decree is compatible with the moral accountability of all persons created in His image (Job 38:11; Ps. 33:8-11; 93:1-2; 115:3; 135:6; Prov. 16:33; 19:21; Isa. 46:9-11; Dan. 4:34-35; Rom. 11:33-36; Eph. 1:11; Rev. 4:11).

4. The Fall of Man

We believe that God created mankind in His own image to know, love, enjoy, and glorify Him. However, the original goodness of creation and the human creature has been corrupted by sin—namely, the rebellious choice of the first human beings to deny the Creator and the created order. Adam and Eve, being tempted by Satan, sinned against God resulting in not only physical but spiritual death, subjecting humanity to divine wrath and all creation to the curse of sin. Consequently, mankind is sinful by nature; depraved in mind, will, and affections; and at enmity with God, completely unable to please Him or be reconciled to Him through any merit of their own (Gen. 1-3; Rom. 1:18, 3:10-19, 23, 5:12-14, 8:7-8, 20; Eph. 2:1-3, 5:5-6).

5. Jesus Christ

We believe in Jesus Christ, the only begotten, eternal, and preeminent Son of God, who is the Word made flesh—fully God and fully man. We believe in His virgin birth, sinless life and perfect obedience, miracles, substitutionary work of atonement on the cross, bodily resurrection from the dead, ascension, and exaltation to the right hand of God (Isa. 52:13-53:12; John 1:1-18; 1 Cor. 15:3-4; Php. 2:6-11; Col. 1:15-22; Heb. 1:1-4).

6. The Gospel

We believe that God, according to His goodness, wisdom, and grace, and in faithfulness to His covenant promises, sent His Son into the world for the redemption of mankind and the restoration of all things. God revealed His righteousness and demonstrated His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ fulfilled the demands of the law, shed his blood and died on the cross as a substitutionary and propitiatory sacrifice, and rose from the dead for the salvation of all who believe. This gospel is the announcement that God reigns as King through the sacrifice and exaltation of Jesus, who is the only mediator between God and man (John 10:9-11, 14:6; Acts 4:12; Rom. 5:1-21; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 4:4-6; 1 Tim. 2:5-6; 1 Pet. 2:21-24).

7. The Salvation of Man

We believe that eternal life, the free gift of God, is provided by grace alone, through faith alone in Christ alone, for the glory of God alone. Anyone believing upon the Lord Jesus Christ and repenting of sin is justified before God—forgiven and declared righteous by faith—reconciled to Him, adopted as sons, and redeemed from the law of sin and death. These are the blessings of our union with Christ, the believer's only hope in life and death (John 1:12-13; Rom. 3:21-28, 5:1-2, 8:1-4, 10:9; 2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 1:7-12, 2:4-9; Titus 3:3-7).

8. The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who is a divine person, coeternal with and proceeding from the Father and Son. He is the primary Agent in the new birth, given irrevocably to all who truly believe by regenerating, sealing, and dwelling in their hearts. He comforts, convicts, teaches, sanctifies, illuminates Scripture, and guides the Church into a right understanding and rich application of the truth of God's Word, producing His fruit in their lives (Eze. 36:26-27; John 3:3-8, 14:16-18, 15:26; 16:7-15; Rom. 5:5; 8:9-17; Gal. 5:22-25; Eph. 1:13-14).

9. The Sanctification of Believers

We believe that sanctification is a continual process, beginning at salvation, of separation from evil and dedication unto God in the life of a true believer, whereby he daily presents his body as a living sacrifice, identifying with Christ's death and resurrection, being led by the Spirit, and transformed by the renewing of his mind (Rom. 6:1-8:17, 12:1-2; 2 Cor. 3:18; Gal. 2:19-20; Eph. 2:10; Col. 3:1-17; 1 Pet. 1:14-16).

10. The Empowering of the Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit desires to continually fill every believer with boldness and power to bear witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and imparts His gifts for the edification of the body and the work of ministry in the world. Believers should likewise earnestly seek to be filled, controlled, and yielded to the Spirit continually. We believe the gifts are available today and are to be eagerly desired and practiced in submission to the Spirit speaking through the Scriptures (John 7:37-39; Acts 1:8, 2:37-47, 4:29-31; Rom. 12:6-8; 1 Cor. 12-14; Eph. 4:7-16; 5:18).

11. The Church and its Mission

We believe that God graciously chooses and preserves for Himself a community united by faith who love, follow, learn from, and worship God together. A visible church of Christ is a local congregation of baptized believers associated by covenant in the fellowship of the gospel, that observes the ordinances of Christ, and whose only scriptural officers are Elders and Deacons. This body of believers proclaims the gospel, makes disciples of all men from all nations, and prefigures Christ's kingdom by the quality of their life together and their love for one another (Matt. 16:15-19; John 17:20-25; Eph. 2:19-22, 4:11-16; 2 Thess. 2:13; 1 Tim. 3:1-13; 1 Pet. 2:5, 9-10).

12. The Ordinances of the Church

We believe that the ordinances of water baptism and communion (the Lord's Supper), instituted and commanded to be observed by Jesus Christ, are visible signs for His body that we are bound together as a covenant community of faith. By our participation in them, the Holy Spirit more fully declares and seals the promises of the gospel to us. We believe that Christian baptism is the immersion in water of a believer in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is a prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and the Lord's Supper (Matt. 28:19; Luke 22:19-20; Acts 2:38-41; Rom. 6:3-4; 1 Cor. 11:23-26; Col. 2:11-12).

13. The Sanctity of Human Life:

We believe that all human life is sacred and created by God in His image. Human life is of inestimable worth in all its dimensions, including pre-born babies, the aged, the physically or mentally challenged, and every other stage or condition from conception through natural death. We are therefore called to defend, protect, and value all human life (Gen. 1:26-27, 9:6; Job 31:15; Ps. 139:13-16; Jer. 1:5; Luke 12:6-7).

14. Marriage, Gender, and Sexuality

We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. Rejection of one's biological sex is a rejection of the image of God within that person. We believe that the term "marriage" has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture. We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other. We believe that any form of sexual immorality (including adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, bisexual conduct, bestiality, incest, and use of pornography) is sinful and offensive to God. At the same time, we believe that every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect, and dignity (Gen. 1:26-27, 2:18-25; Matt. 19:4-6; Mark 12:28-31; Rom. 1:18-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11, 18, 7:2-5; Eph. 5:22-33; Heb. 13:4).

15. The Consummation

We believe in the glorious return of the risen Lord Jesus to consummate God's purpose for the whole creation through His victory over death and the devil—our blessed hope. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, the translation of those alive in Christ, the judgment of the righteous to eternal life and the wicked to eternal punishment, and the fulfillment of Christ's kingdom in the new heavens and the new earth to the praise of His glory (Matt. 25:31-46; John 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; Eph. 1:10; 1 Thess. 4:16-17; Rev. 20-22).

Section 2 This statement of faith does not exhaust the extent of our sincerely held religious beliefs. The Bible itself, as the inspired and infallible Word of God that speaks with final authority concerning truth, morality, and the proper conduct of mankind, is the sole and final source of all that we believe. For purposes of faith, doctrine, practice, policy, and discipline, the Elders are the final interpretive authority on the Bible's meaning and application for Emmanuel Community Church.

Article IV: Membership

Individuals shall be eligible to membership in this local church who give evidence of personal living faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and have been baptized as believers, who voluntarily subscribe to its Statement of Faith, who agree to uphold the commitments set forth in its

- D. In compliance with the Not-For Profit Corporation laws of New York, the Deacons shall serve as the Trustees of this Corporation.

Article VI: Amendments

This Constitution or subsequent By-Laws may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership of the church who are in attendance at any regular or special meetings called for that purpose by the Elders, provided due notice of such proposed change shall have been made at all the services on at least two Sundays preceding the time of such meeting.

Section 2 Covenant

Having been led by the Spirit of God to repent and believe in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and upon our profession of faith in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, relying on His grace alone, sincerely and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ, to make known the glory of God and the preeminence of Christ by proclaiming the truth of the gospel in the power of the Spirit.

We will walk together in brotherly love, exercise an affectionate care and watchfulness over each other, and encourage one another to grow in love and good works, growing ourselves in faith, study of the Word, prayer, and fellowship.

We will meet with one another consistently, pray for ourselves and others regularly, edify one another with our speech, rejoice with those who rejoice, and endeavor to bear each other's burdens and sorrows.

We will work and pray for the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, humbly and gently confronting and receiving correction from one another in accordance with a New Testament understanding of church discipline and restoration.

We will endeavor to nurture and admonish those in our care, to walk purposefully yet carefully in this world, to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts, and to seek, by a pure and loving example, the salvation of our family and friends.

We will work together to sustain the worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines of this church, contributing cheerfully and regularly to the support of its various ministries and expenses, the relief of the poor and afflicted, the making of disciples, and the spread of the Gospel to all nations by giving of our time, talents, and treasure.

We will submit to the Word of God as the all-sufficient authority in our lives and in His church, and to the leadership of this church, who have been entrusted by God to serve and care for the members of this body by teaching the Word to us and modeling the character of Christ before us.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.
